

Edison High School Math Teacher Job Description

Job Summary

Edison High School math teachers cultivate critical thinking, problem solving skills, and a mastery of mathematical competency in every student.

Education and Experience:

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited four-year higher education institution with a Master's in education, mathematics, and/or special education preferred.
- Must be comfortable teaching through Algebra 2/Trigonometry, experience with math interventions for struggling students preferred.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- Teach full-time as assigned.
- Lead an advisory/homeroom to support students with organization, self-advocacy, and social skill development.
- Collaborate with math department on curriculum development and reform.
- Attend weekly faculty meetings, department meetings, and two all-school retreats.
- Other assigned tasks and/or duties (e.g. attend the School's annual fundraising Breakfast and Auction; chaperone a dance; coordinate parent and student conferences; etc.) as assigned.

Knowledge of:

- Principles, theories, methods, techniques, and strategies as they pertain to teaching mathematics to high school students with learning disabilities.
- Educational trends and best practices for curriculum development and instructional strategies for high school math programming.
- Academic, social, and behavioral characteristics of high school students.
- Behavioral management and behavior shaping strategies, techniques, and methods. Effective classroom management procedures.

Ability to:

- Plan, organize, develop, and effectively deliver a comprehensive math curriculum.
- Provide effective learning experiences and create a stimulating learning environment for students with learning disabilities.

- Effectively assess the educational needs of each student. Utilize innovative strategies to enhance student success.
- Review, analyze, evaluate, and report students' academic, social, and emotional growth.
- Build positive relationships with students, parents, and colleagues using clear and open communications.
- Thrive in a tight-knit community while working with students, parents, and staff with diverse ethnic, religious, sexual orientation, and racial backgrounds.
- Demonstrate an optimistic attitude, the resiliency to excel, and a dedication to personal and professional growth.
- Strive to set an inspiring and motivating example to others.

Certificates and Clearances:

- Valid secondary teaching license from any state in the United States
- First Aid and CPR Certificate
- Criminal Justice Fingerprint and Background Clearance

Reporting:

This position reports to the Principal of Edison High School

Salary and Benefits:

Salary is dependent on experience. Full benefits.

Please send your cover letter and resume to:

jasonw@edisonhs.org